her sister, Mrs. Charles Thompson, arrived in the city this morning from Springerville, Arizona, to do some shopping. Mr. Collier is a county commissioner and was a member of the Arizona constitutional convention.

STUDENTS WILL BE WELCOMED AT A RECEPTION

Dr. and Mrs. E. McQueen Gray to Entertain at University Tonight, General Public is Invited.

A public reception in honor of the students and members of the faculty, will be reported tonight at the University of New Mexico by President E. McQueen Gray and Mrs. Gray. The reception will be in the Bodie hall and a very pleasing program of entertainment has been prepared. Following a speech of welcome by Dr.
Gray, W. F. Chang, president of the board of regents and Dr. Angel, the dean of students, and continuing with music, short addresses several graduates will then be rendered, including a poem written by Mr.
Collier, a sonnet with an aria from "Mignon" by Miss Adele Howett, a solo solo by Mr. Andrews, and a tenor solo by Signor Guido Tassotti.
The Lombardi Italian concert continues. Dancing and refreshments will be features of the late evening. All friends of the students and of the institution are cordially invited to attend the reception. "Jumpin' Jimmie," Trimble's big ears all, will leave Parsons at 8:15, carrying those who wish to make the trip up the hill.

RIDE BLIND BAGGAGE ARE SENT TO JAIL

For riding on the blind baggage, and for his first experience at that, J. A. Adams was this morning sentenced to ten days in the city jail.
James was picked off a passenger train by watchful Santa Fe sheriff officers yesterday and hastened to jail to await a trial. "It was the first time I ever did it," he said to the judge.

"Well, here's hoping it's the last time. I'll give you ten days."

William Riley, though reluctant to call himself a vagrant, was sent up for a like period. "I'm not a vagrant," he said, "I never begged a cent in all my life."

"But you were bumming on the train."

"Yes, I was bumming on the train." Then under our statute you're a vagrant. Ten days."

Leo Holly was unable to understand the charge entered against him, as he understands no language but French.
When told he was accused of vagrancy, he said "I have a wooden leg. The judge decided to wait for an interpreter before continuing with the case."

Sam Seely was given a sentence of five days for being drunk and profane.

Get your Clothes where you Place your Confidence

The establishment of your confidence in this store is our highest aim.

We are trying hard to merit it; showing only such clothes as measure up to the highest of possible standards; urging your purchase of such good clothes as Kuppenheimer's because we know their worth and know the satisfaction they give.

We are not bound to any manufacturer; the market of the world is ours and we've searched it.

Our championship of Kuppenheimer Clothes results from a test of them all; we select Kuppenheimer because their honest worth is certain to obtain and retain that confidence in this establishment which makes for its greatest success.

We are building for the future. We know of no stronger foundation than that of greatest value-giving.
You'll find your money buys best when you buy your clothes here.

LOCKHART FUNERAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Pioneer Resident of Albuquerque Will Be Laid to Rest in Fairview Cemetery; Services at the Home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen Lockhart, wife of Henry Lockhart, whose death occurred Tuesday afternoon, following an illness of long standing, will be held in the Lockhart home, near the United States Indian school, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
Archdeacon W. E. Warren of St.
John's Episcopal church will conduct the services. Appropriate music will be rendered by the Episcopalian choir.
Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.
The pall bearers will be old time friends of the Lockhart family: Moses J. T. Baldwin, John S. Bremer, Harvey D. Prughman, H. B.
Kauffman, George F. Albright, O. A.
Maupherson, Frank Wilson, Boulton S. Petty.

By Sunday noon all the sons and daughters of Mrs. Lockhart who can possibly be in time for the funeral will have arrived. John Emmet Lockhart arrived yesterday morning from Chihuahua, Mexico. Another son will arrive Sunday from New York City, accompanied by his sister, Mrs.
Van Vleck of Toledo.

While not entirely unexpected, the death of Mrs. Lockhart, who was one of the pioneer residents of Albuquerque, came rather as a shock to her many friends here. The funeral Sunday afternoon will doubtless be largely attended.

YOUNG fellows who go away to school want to find yourselves in the right style when you get there. You don't know what the other fellows are going to wear, but you will be safe if you take along a suit or two of this fall line from

Hart Schaffner & Marx

The new English models will be much worn by the best dressers this fall. We have a fine lot of these here.
The coat is made without any padding; it has the soft roll lapel, short and long styles; it's a very snappy model. You'll like the Shape-maker, too; a very stunning style, made exclusively by Hart Schaffner & Marx for young men; and the Varsity is continuously popular.

We'll be glad to show you any style you want, and fit you out in good shape before you go away.
